Nisqually Dedicated Area at Longmire Mt. Rainier National Park

The Nisqually Indian Tribe has an agreement with Mt. Rainier National Park to honor the ancestral ties between the Tribe and təqʷuʔmaʔ our mountain home. As part of this agreement, Tribal members are invited to return to the Mountain to camp and picnic without charge in a designated area in the Longmire Campground.

YOU MUST HAVE A PERMIT FROM THE NISQUALLY TRIBE TO CAMP AT THIS SITE.

If you're just going up for the day, you don't need a permit!

RETURN THIS APPLICATION TO JACKIE WALL, TRIBAL HISTORIC PRESERVATION OFFICER.

Please abide by these policies so that all tribal members may continue to enjoy this area under this agreement with the National Park.

1. Only camping and picnicking within the Nisqually Special Permit Area.
2. Park within the designated camping area and NOT on the shoulders of the Longmire campground road.
3. Please respect the 9 pm to 7 am quiet hours in the Longmire Campground.
4. The campground host may come by to check and make sure that you are a Nisqually Tribal member.
5. Do not leave any trash in the Nisqually area. Place all trash in park-provided bear-proof trash receptacles when you leave.

INDEMNITY AGREEMENT

I _____, intend to visit and/or camp at the Nisqually Tribal Designated Use Area at the Longmire Campground in Mt. Rainier National Park. I agree to indemnify and save and hold harmless the United States, Nisqually Tribal Government, its agents, and Nisqually Tribal employees, from any loss, liability, damage, or cost they may incur due to my activities on the premises under this Access and Use Permit, whether caused by my negligence or otherwise.

I understand and agree that I am assuming the risk of any personal injury or property damage to me or anyone in my party that may result from visiting or camping at this site. I understand that the camping area is a natural area and that there are potential hazards including uneven ground, trees that may lose limbs, slopes, and the glacial Nisqually river. I also understand and agree that I may be held liable for any damage or loss that is caused by negligence or willful misconduct of me or anyone in my party.
