

ADULT HEALING HOUSE

The Adult Healing House provides two programs: in-house transitional care and caregiver services.

Contact Us

If there is a concern about a person's ability to safely take care of themselves at home or when a person has had some time of surgery or procedure and is unable to go directly home after the procedure.

All clients need to get a referral from one of the Nisqually Clinic Providers. The provider will assist in determining what services would be best for each client.
