

Funeral Attendance

A funeral service that is held out of doors, is acceptable, with social distancing, masks, hand sanitizer and no direct contact with other individuals.

A drive by funeral, with people not leaving their vehicles and just stopping by to offer condolences is preferable.

An indoor funeral service requires a quarantine period for all attendees.

Take Care, Stay Safe.

Mary Szafranski, RN
Nisqually Indian Tribe
Public Health Officer

