

DIRECTIONAL DRILL LOCATOR

Nisqually Communications Services

NCSGC activities include installation, maintenance and restoration of communications and utility infrastructure. NCSGC is an equal opportunity employer looking for a full-time experienced HDD operator. NCSGC offers competitive pay, benefits, and 401K. Relocation expense negotiable.

Responsibilities:

- Experience running a locator on a directional drill crew required
- Operates locator in accordance with blueprints and designated plans
- Maintain and record bore logs from job to job be able to deliver as-builts
- Maintains company equipment per service requirements and safety guidelines
- Assists with construction clean-up as necessary
- Any other duties and responsibilities as assigned
- Willing to work outside in varying weather conditions

Qualifications:

- High school diploma or General Education Diploma (GED) preferred
- Previous experience in standard and high-risk areas
- Previous experience in underground fiber and coax construction
- Previous experience on DCI locators a plus
- Knowledge of utility depths and placements
- Possess excellent knowledge of construction practices
- Knowledge of reading and understanding blueprints is required
- Knowledge of Vermeer machines a plus
- Possess a Commercial Driver's License (CDL) Class A

In addition, the ideal candidate would have the following attributes:

- Equipped to work in trenches, manholes and tunnels
- Prepared to sit, stand, stop, crouch, reach and lift for long periods of time
- Able to lift up to 50 lbs. unassisted
- Capable to use full-range of motion in fingers, hand and wrists to operate necessary tools/equipment

If interested, please send a resume to Megan Peterson at mpeterson@mc-ec.org.